S12 - E22

Reunion Part 1

The cast relive some of the most outrageous moments from the season, but first they express their frustrations with one of the ladies' behavior during quarantine. Leah revisits the highs and lows of her first season, and spills the tea on how the uptown ladies reacted to her downtown attitude. A very glowing Tinsley updates the ladies on her relationship with Scott and life in Chicago, but things quickly heat up when Dorinda calls her out for not being transparent with the group and finishing the season early.
